Getting Started: Support for Community-Engaged Learning at MSU

Tuesday, October 15 | 8:30 a.m. – 10:30 a.m. | Light breakfast provided
KELLOGG CENTER, ROOM 93

This session will discuss the support the Center for Community Engaged Learning (CCEL) can provide to instructors in developing and enhancing course-based community-engaged learning opportunities for students. The gathering will include networking time for participants to connect with each other and share current and/or future project plans. Consultation times with CCEL staff for the afternoon or week to follow will be available for scheduling.

Part 1: Getting Started: Support for Community-Engaged Learning at MSU

This session will discuss the support the Center for Community Engaged Learning (CCEL) can provide to instructors in developing and enhancing course-based community-engaged learning opportunities for students.

Part 2: Creating or Refining your Community-Engaged Learning Syllabus

This session will discuss elements of designing a syllabus to outline the community-engaged learning experience and requirements, highlight community partnership, and build in reflection opportunities. We will draw from sample syllabi, templates, and peer testimonials to assist instructors in shaping plans for future courses.
